ANDREW JOHNSON ON RECONSTRUCTION.

"In calling a convention to restore the Blate, who shall restore and re-establish it?
Shall the man who gave his influence and his means to destroy the Government? Is he to participate in the great work of reorganisation? Shall he who brought this misery upon the State be permitted to control its destintes? If this beso, then all this precious blood of our brave soldiers and officers so freely poured out will have been wantonly spilled, all the glorious victories won by our noble armies will go for naught, and all the battle-fields which have been sown with dead heroes during the rebellion will have been made memorial in vain. Why all this carnage and devastation? It was that freuson might be put down and traitors phinished.
Therefore I say that traitors shall take a back seat in the work of restoration."

Therefore I say that traitors shall take a back seat in the work of restoration."

ANDREW JOHNSON IN FAVOR OF DISTRAN-CHISHO TRAITORS.

"I say that the traitor has cessed to be a citizen; and in joining the rebellion has become a public enemy. He forfested his right to vote with loyal men when he renounced his citizenship and sought to destroy our Government. We say to the most honest and industrious foreigner who comes from England and Germany to dwell among us, and to add to the wealth of the country, 'Refore you can be a citizen you must stay here for five years.' If we are so cautious about foreigners, who voluntarily renounce their homes to live with us, what should we say to the traitor who, although born and reared among us, has raised a paricidal hand against the Government which always profected him? My judgment is that he should be subjected to a severe ordeal before he is restored to citizenship."

We are glad to see that Old Marshall is waking herself up in this contest. We were afraid that she was disposed to repose wholly upon her laurels in the past.
